PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1888.

statesman.

Miss Amelia Harmon, an artist, tearfully asked an attendant for a leaf from one of the designs, and having received it hurried away with her treasure.

The hearse was followed to the Grand Cen-

The hearse was followed to the Grand Central depot by more than one hundred carriages, laden with the most honored of the citizens of New York.

The special train which conveyed the remains of Mr. Conkling to Utica was composed of a locomotive, a baggage-car, President Depew's private car for the use of the family, and two drawing-room cars.

BRINGING OUT THE FLOWERS.

5 O'CLOCK EXTRA

THE MEN HOLD THEIR OWN.

THE LOCKED-OUT BREWERS STILL STICK-ING TO THEIR POSITION.

The Bosses Keeping Up a Bold Front-The Knights of Labor Will Stand by the Locked-Out Men-Encouraging Words from 49's Executive Board-Progress of he Boycott in the City Saloans. The brewers' lockout, as far as the old employees and the bosses are concerned, remains in the same condition to-day as it did yesterday, both sides claiming to have the better of the battle, and the fight still going on. Another phase was put on the matter by the announcement that Master Workman Quinn had reported that the Executive Board of District Assembly 49 had decided that wherever it was possible Knights of Labor would take the places of union men in the brew-cries. There was a great deal of talk at Clarendon Hall over the report thus made, and many expressed their disbelief in such a course on the part of the Knights, who were all along presumed to be in sympathy with the union brewers, although not extending any active and financial support. An Evening World reporter saw William Muller, Robert Dinkel and George Koberstein, who were appointed by the locked-out men to visit the Executive Board of No. 49 and request the moral assistance of that body. Mr. Muller says that the committee saw five members of 49's Executive Board. who assured them that the Knights of No. 49 would be requested through the local assemblies to give the brewery workmen all the assistance in their power.

One member of the Executive Board said "If it were in my power I would take a club and club out all the men who remained in the breweries after such a lockout."

The attempt of the Sun this morning to strike another of its blows at the Knights of Labor by saying that the Knights of District Assembly 49 would take the places of the Assembly 49 would take the pinces of the locked-out men was roundly denounced by all concerned in the lockout.

General Master Workman Quinn said:

'The Executive Board held no meeting at all yesterday. They have not taken any action whatever towards putting men in others' tion whatever towards putting men in others' places; and neither will they, but they will discountenance any efforts made in that direction. I never called on the brewers' unions to request their aid in a sympathetic strike, and if any of their members have asserted that in the past or the present it is entirely false.

tirely false.
"The statement in the Sun that I saw the The statement in the Sun that I saw the reporters yesterday is not true. I was not in the State of New York Yesterday."

Upper Clarendon Hall was crowded again this forenoon with the inside brewery work-

It was reported that 100 men had left the breweries and rejoined the ranks of the locked-out forces. Several speakers denounced those news-papers which had favored the bosses as against the union men.

Two young women, who came as delegates from Section 10 of the Socialistic Labor Party, spoke encouragingly and said they had driven a large quantity of pool beer out of uptown saloons.

At the association rooms, in Irving place, the bosses still claimed the victory. They were further encouraged by the report that the Knights of Labor would take the places of the union men, but they declared that no organization would be recognized as such in any negotiations with their employees. The bosses think that the Board of Arbitration has no business to interfere in the present case.

has no business to interfere in the present case.

Along the Bowery several saloons have the sign "No Pool Beer Sold Here" dis layed, but at Capt, Jos. Emerich's saloon, No. 207
Bowery, nearly the entire front of the saloon is taken up with a sign which reads:
"Notice: No Beer will be sold here until the brewers relent." Next to it s another sign announcing that "All kinds of drinks except Pool Beer" are sold within.

A telephone message received at the Brewers' Exchange from Conrad Stein's brewery announced that a committee of the unions waited on Mr. Stein and requested that to sign their agreement. He refused to nin to sign their agreement. He refused to do so and his employees all le t the brewery. Mr. Stein said that unless his old men re-turned by noon to day he would declare their places vacant and put new men in them. Th essociation sent new men to the brewery at

At the meetings in Clarendon Hall it was announced that Brewer Feigenspahn, of Glendale, L. I., had signed the union contract. His men continued at work. He is a member of the Association, and is therefore II ble. under the pool agreement, to forfeit $5,000 for a violation of the resolutions against the

for a violation of the resolutions against the recognition of the labor unions.
Secretary Reige, of the Beer Drivers' Union, reported that sixteen old drivers who had gone back to work after the lockout had left their places and joined the men at Clarendon Hall. Five others left the union men and went to work to-day.

The brewers' unions gave the men who returned to work until noon to-day to rejoin the locked-out force. Hereafter all union men who two twenty to the cause are

CARNEGIE DUMFOUNDS THE KNIGHTS.

If They Do Not Report for Work, Non-Union Mon Will Be Hired. IMPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

PITTSBURG, April 20.-Andrew Carnegie has ordered his Braddock mill to start Mon-If the Knights fail to report for work, non-union labor will be employed.

The Knights are dumfounded.

They Were Not Walking Delegates. The report that four walking delegates had drunk pool beer in John H. Cole's saloon, at 1883 Third avenue, is emphatically denied by the Board of Walking Delegates of the building and other trainer.

of Walking Delegates of the building gas contrades.

Careful inquiry by an Evening World reporter aboves that none of the members of the Board visited the saloon mentioned, but were busily engaged attending to their duties and also in soluting saloon-keepers all over the city from paironizing pool breweries. In a number of instances where the delegates were asked to drink or smoke, they positively declined because pool beer was sold in the places.

It is the belief of the delegates that some one spread the report, either for un or for the purpose of doing the much-shused walking delegates an injury. An explanation for the erroneous report is given in the fact that it is customary now for frequenters of saloons to call some nangers-on and bummers "walking delegates" because they do not have anything else to do but to walk about,

Notes About Workingmen.
Delegate Wolle, of Union No. 90, presided at the obacco Trades Section last night.

Twelve new members were admitted to the Jour seymen Shop Butchers' Union at the last meeting The Eiks' Association of Butchers has induced five as con-keepers to change their beer from pool The Urania Labor Club of waiters and the Barenders' unions have jointly arranged rewers in their present struggle.

T. J. Hawkins, delegate of the Adams and Cyl-inder Pressmen's Union, presided at the meeting of the Printing Trades Section Thursday night. The Miscellaneous Section has instructed all the organizations represented in it to attend the mass-meeting at Cooper Union to-night in aid of the locked-out brewers.

The Journeymen Shop Butchers' Union removed its place of meeting from 1110 Second avenue to $45 Third avenue because the proprietor of the former place sells pool beer.

A special committee of the Miscellaneous Section will want on the furniture and carpet store firms in Third and Righth avenues, and ask them to close their places at 7 and 6 r. M. respectively.

Delegates from Presamen's Union No. 9, Adams and Cylinder Presamen's Union, Newsdealers and Stationers' Association and the Borace Greeley Club were admitted to the Printing Trades Section Thursday night. The Secretary of the Shop Butchers' Union has been instructed by that body to write to Mayor Hewitt and call his attention to the fact that a large number of butcher shops are kept open on Sundays until 11 and 12 o'clock.

Sundays until 11 and 12 o'clock.

Presmiles and resolutions indorsing the course of the Brewers' unions were adopted last night by the Tobacco Trades Section, and moral and financial support pledged to the locked-out men. The delegates will not patronize any pool beer place.

The West-Side Association of Silk-Ribbon Weavers, the Waiking-Stick Makers' Union, Council No. 5, of the Furniture and Carpet Employees' Association and Beigian Pavers' Union No. 1 were admitted to the Miscellaneous Section Thursday evening.

evening.

A fine of $5 will be levied on any member of the Shop Butchers' Union who drinks pool beer. A committee has been appointed to visit sil the saloons in the neighborhood of the union's meeting place at $45 Third avenue and endeavor to persuade the proprietors to give un selling pool beer. McCafferty & Donovan, electrotypers and stereotypers, at Church and Vesey streets, said yesterday that they had for two months been trying to find out why toeir establishment has been declared a non-union shop by Stereotypers and Electrotypers' Union No, 1. They say that they employ union men and pay union wages.

Officers were elected at the Tobacco Trades Sec-men and pay union wages.

Officers were elected at the Tobacco Trades Section meeting last night as follows: Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Siegfried Popper, of Cigar-Makers' Union No. 90; Financial Secretary, F. Reibetanz, of Cigar-Makers' Union No. 144; Credential Committee—M. Dampf, J. Wolfe, S. Popper, H. Kahler and Delegate Marcuse.

The Oystermen's Union has induced the proprietors of Frank's Hall, at 123 West Houston street, to give up seiling pool beer and snostitute the non-pool. A committee will visit all the salcons in the neighborhood of the oyster market at the foot of West Tenth street and endeavor to persuade them to quit seiling pool beer. Any member or the union who drinks pool beer will be fined $10.

A committee of ten from the Food Producers Section that was instructed to visit halls and places where labor organizations meet and beer is sold, reports that pool beer has been dropped by the propietors of Hoiz's and Military halls, in the Bowery, and Schultz's Hall, 101 Avenne A. The committee will continue its work until all the places are visited.

NEW YORK VS. WASHINGTON.

A special correspondent of "The Even. ing World" has gone to Washington with the Giants. The readers of the Sporting Extra to-night will have a full and excellent report of the game this afternoon. Look out for it. It is the first game of the League championship. The other League games to-day will Boston at Philadelphia. Detroit at Pittsburg. Chicago at Indianapolis.

IT WAS ALL A JOKE.

Druggist Woodcock Denies that He Intended to Claim that Baby as His.

William H. Woodcock, the druggist who is being sued by his wife Charlotte St. L. Woodcock for absolute divorce, was the principal witness before Judge Ingraham in the Supreme Court General Term to-day.

He testified that Ann Watson, the young woman f whose child he is alleged to be the father, was brought to this country from Ireland as com-

When she left them in 1886 she continued to make pills for Woodcock's drug store. Mrs. Woodcock had decided to adopt the girl's baby if it could be found that its parentage was respectable. He called frequently apon the girl in Fifteenth street with this object in view. He also called about the ills.

He often conversed with Mrs. Derby about chil-tren, and once showed her the picture of a little bild and said it was his child. This was a stand-by joke, the witness said. He often joked in this

Mrs. Derby's testimony about another picture was emphatically denied. Mr. Woodsack also denied that he had told Mrs. Derby that he had named the child victoria Elien Ann Williams.

Continuing, the witness said that he met Mrs. Derby at her home in Woodside when the first papers in the suit were prepared. He said that at that time Mrs. Derby said she had made a fool of herself and was going to see counsel for Mrs. Woodcock and take back overything she had said against Woodcock. aid against Woodcock.

Judge Ingraham took the papers.

The Closing Quetations.

Gestern. llinois Central nd., Bloom. & Western...
kingston & Pembroke.... ouisville & Nashville..... Lake Shore.

Lake Erie & Western

Lake Erie & Western prd

Manhattan Consol

Michigan Central

Minnespolls & St. Louis prd

Missouri Pasiho. ris & Renau & Texas. Morris & Resell
New Jersey Contral
New Jersey Contral
N. Y. & New England
N. Y. & New England
N. Y. & Sussa, & Western
Y. Y. Sussa, & Western
Y. Y. Sussa, & Western ptd.
Vorthern Pacific, Northern Pacific.
Northern Pacific ufd.
Ohio & Missionippi
Oregon Hailwar & Navigation
Oregon Transcontinental.
Oregon improvement.
Pacific Mail.
Philadeipine & Reading. ve 1888 Phinadesphus & Readure.
Phinadesphus & Readure.
Porta Decatur & Evan
Car Co.
Car Co.
St. Faul & Omata.
St. Faul & Omata.
St. Faul & Omata.
St. Louis & San Francisco.
Trans & Fantic.
Trans & San Francisco pid Trans Pantic.
Union Faults
Weshash. St. Louis & Washash.

HIS LAST JOURNEY.

Impressive Funeral Services Over Roscoe Conkling.

Thousands Pay a Final Tribute to the Statesman and Jurist.

Members of Congress and the Legislature. Leaders in Every Walk of Life, and Hundreds of High and Low Among the Mourners-Sincero Grief During the Ceremonies at Trinity Chapel-Magnificent Floral Offerings-The Body Taken to Simple, unostentatious, like the last years of the life of Roscoe Conkling, was the funeral service at Trinity Chapel this morning. Fully two thousand people ventured out, otwithstanding the rain, to pay the last tribute to the dead statesman, and the chapel was completely filled, while hundreds remained on the sidewalks and pavement in West Twenty-fifth street during the funeral

Inspector Steers, at the head of a platoon of forty picked policemen, was at the entrance to the chapel, and Capt. Reilly and Sergt. Schmittberger commanded a body of thirty policemen before the scene of the death of the ex-Senator in Twenty-fourth street

THE CROWD IN TWENTY-FOURTH STREET. The gathering of people included every station in life. Senators Evarts and Hiscock occupied a pew in the body of the chapel with an aged colored woman.

There were hundreds of sincere mourners, and when the surpliced choir of thirty boys and young men entered singing the processional hymn, "O Paradise," there were many moistened eyes in the audience.

The plain, black, broadcloth-covered cas ket in which Mr. Conkling's body rested was brought down from his apartment early in the morning and rested on a bier in the parlor of Mr. Goff's apartments, on the first floor of 9 West Twenty-fourth street, till 10 floor of 9 West Twenty-fourth street, till 10 o'clock.

Then it was placed in a plain black hearse, drawn by a single pair of black horses, and, followed by carriages containing the mourners, was taken to the chapel.

There it was carried down the central aisle on the shoulders of four men and placed on a cata alque directly before the chancel.

A weath of laurel lay at the head of the coffin, and a myrtle wreath, knotted with a bunch of red roses, was at the foot.

The pall-bearers were Senator John P. Jones, Manton Marble, S. L. M. Barlow, Claronce A. Seward, Judge William A. Waillace, ex. Judge Shipman, Senator J. Donald Cameron, Isaac H. Bailey, Col. W. S. Church, the venerable Dr. Barker and Dr. Sands. They followed the remains in this order, ex. Secretary of State Hamilton Fish being too Secretary of State Hamilton Fish being too ill to attend.

CARBYING OUT THE CASKET.

After the pall-bearers came the mourners.
Mrs. Conkling and Col. Frederick A. Conkling, the brother of the ex-Senator came first, bowed with grief. Mr. and Mrs. Oakman, Judge Coxe and Mrs. Coxe, Alderman Alfred R. Conkling and Miss Coleman, of Cazenovia; Howard Conkling and Miss
Leves Conkling son and depote of Care Cazenovia: Howard Conkling and Miss Lavra Conkling, son and daughter of Col. Conkling: Col. Fred D. Grant and his mother, the widow of Gen. Grant: Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild and Mrs. Fairchild, George C. Gorhau and Mrs. Fred Grant, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Grant, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Grant.

A committee of forty citizens of Utica, who arrived last night, occupied the seats next in the rear of the mourning family. They were as follows:

Mayor Mariin, ex-Mayors Kenny and Hutchin-

They were as follows:

Mayor Mariin, ex-Mayors Kenny and Hutchinson, Mr. Prootor Judge Comstock, P. V. Rogers, Wm. M. White, C. M. Dennison, E. Frentice Bailey, Wm. Blatkie, Frank Lang, M. W. Van Auken, Win. A. Matteson, C. J. Everett, W. E. Lewis, H. J. Cookingham, James Eaton, Dr. James G. Hunt, Dr. M. O. Terry, James Armstrong, L. S. Hunt, George S. Dana, Edward Roach, D. L. Davis, W. Fred Allen, George B. Allen, W. J. Dail, P. J. C. De Angeles, Fred Eaton, H. D. Pixtey, William M. Clarke, H. O. R. Tucker, John S. Capron, Thomas F. Baker, Col. George Young, M. J. Brayton, John E. Brandegee and N. Curus White.

The Bar Association was represented by Senator William M. Evarts, Stephen P. Nash, James C. Carter and William Allen

Nash, James C. Carter and William Allen Butler.

The joint Legislative Committee consisting of Senators Coggeshall, Van Cott, Sweet, Laughlin and Stadler, and Assemblymen Husted, Gallagher, Hunting, Entz, Beattie, Gordon, Kent and Martin occupied pews on the centre aisle. The legislators entered the church in a body and were headed by the Sergeants-at-Arms of both Houses.

A Congressional committee arrived at the church at 9.45 and were ushered into a front pew. Among them were Congressmen Cockran, Campbell, Sherman, Delano, Bolden and Hopkins.

service of the Episcopal Church, ex-The service of the Episcopal Church, except the committal, was read by the Rev. Dr. Morgan J. Drx.

The surpliced choir sang "Rock of Ages," the congregation joining in the soft, soothing visit some friends a few days ago. His daughter has been stopping with him in Ber-lin, but is at present in Italy. Mr. Dinamore Sinking Rapidly. William B. Dinsmore, President of the Adams Express Company, still lies dangerously ill at his home, No. 302 Fitth avenue. Dr. Curtis, his physician, said this afternoon: "Mr. Dinmore is sinking very rapidly, and unless a very sudden raily takes place he will not survive until evening. He has been unconscious and unable to take nour-ishment for the past twelve hours."

to-day."
Minister Pendleton went to Wiesbaden to

AT THE CHURCH DOOR.

Secretary Fairchild bore warm verbal mes-

MINISTER PENDLETON VERY SICK.

Selzed with a Stroke of Apoplexy at the Wiesbaden Hospital.

Copyright, 1888, by The Press Publishing Company (New Fork World), [RPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD.]

LONDON, April 20. - Despatches from Berlin

bring the startling information that Minister

He is suffering from a stroke of spoplexy,

Minister Pendleton's son, Frank K. Pen and was taken sick while on his way to Pendleton is lying in the hospital at Wies baden dangerously ill.

Crushed Between Flywheels. Oxyono, N. J., April 20. -Louis Stockbine, an employee of one of the rolling mills here, met with a terriple death last night by being crushed be-tween two high flywheels. His body was muti-lated beyond recognition.

Of leterest to Engineers. Burnham, General Agent, 24 Liberty et., No. Fork

DEAR NIS: Having given the Ellis Crlinder Oil Cup a thorough trial, we are entirely satisfied with it, and I would say to those using Labricators if they try the Ellis Cup they will use no other. Respectfully yours,
CHAS. M. MCKENNA. Chief Engineer Adems Ez. Co.
This cup is now used by THE WORLD and gives perfect satisfacture.

strains of the hymn. The hymn, "Abide With Me," was the recessional. There was a world of sweet flowers. On the chancel steps was a pillow of Ascension lilies. La France roses and white flowers. It was from the New York Athletic Club. Other offerings were from Mrs. C. B. Morton, of South Fifth street, Washington: Mrs. Orton, J. W. McKay, Edward C. Spofford and Mrs. W. H. Painter. After the service scores of people gathered about the floral offerings, and occasional leaves dropped from the pieces were eagerly treasured up as mementoes of the dead statesman.

Her Methods Exposed To-Day by Magician Carl Hertz.

A Spirit Picture Produced Under Her Very Nose.

awyor Mursh's Medium Has a Hard Time in the Special Sessions Court-A Big Crowd Watches Her with Interest-she Made Love to Manager Randolph on Sight-Blarsh's Friends Foured that She Would Poison Him and that Is Why She Was Kept in the Tombs.

" Take my jewels, my money, my pictures all I have, but get me out of this terrible place," said Mme. Diss Debar to her counel John D. Townsend, in her Tombs cell this morning.

She held out the black leather reticule which she has kept close to her during the seven days and nights she has languished in ail. It contained $4,550 in bills by actual t was hopeless to get bail. And it is hopeless. Ann O'Delia must re-coffin was closed at 6 o'clock last evening and was not sgain opened.

To-morrow the body will lie in state in Utica, and Mr. Conkling's old neighbors will be permitted to view the body from 12 to 1 o'clock.

The casket will be inclosed in an outer box of oak, bearing a plain copper plate inscribed with the name "Roscoe Conkling." There has been some surprise that the me. over Mr. Marsh, should have been unable to secure her release pending her trial. The reason is that several weeks ago several influential friends of Mr. Marsh, who often visited his house and were on intimate terms with him, suspected that his seeming mental decay and subjection to the medium was not prought about by mere intellectual and will In plain terms, they suspected that he was being drugged. being drugged.

When the revelations as to the mysterious death of old Loewenhertz came to light, and when Salomon Ann-O'Delia's brother plainly said he believed she had poisoned the old man, Mr. Marsh's friends became still_more of oak, bearing a plain copper plate inscribed with the name "Roscoe Conkling."

Among those present were:

Ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt, ex-Gov. Alonzo B. Cornell, ex-Senator Warner Miller, Edward S. Stokes, Postmaster-General Dickloson, Dwight Olmstead, John E. Parsons, ex-Judge Dononue, Maurice B. Flyun, United States Commissioner Shields, Gen. Sigel. Surveyor Beattle, ex-Judge Peabody, Frederic R. Coudert, W. J. Lardner, United States Commissioner Griffith, ex-Surrogate Calvin, ex-Park Commissioner S. E. Lane, Col. Geo. B. Van Bruat, ex-Mayor Wickham, Joseph H. Choate, E. Ellery Anderson, ex-Attorney-General Leslie W. Russell, Asa B. Keitogg, Roswell P. Flower, A. Dickloson Williams, ex-Collector Murphy, Alderman Forster, DeLancey Nicoli, Frank Work, J. E. Brodsky, Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, John H. Starin, William Wyse, Col. T. A. Hamilton, Rufus Hatch, Hamilton Fish, fr.; Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin; Edward Glimore, Surrogate Ransom, J. B. Haskin, John J. Morris, ex-Judge Dittenhoefer, Silas B. Dutcher, Charles E. Coons, ex-Judge Pierrepont, Levi M. Bates, S. W. Thompson, Thomas C. Acton, David Eudley Field.

rence for further examination on the charge near an approach to imperial dignity as she could muster. She had heavy gold orna-ments on her wrists and neck and in her hair. The men were sallow complexioned and their attire was somewhat rusty and ill-and their attire was somewhat rusty and illarranged.

When they entered the Special Sessions court-room they faced a large crowd who waited in lively expectation.

The prisoners sat just outside the railing, with their counsel John D. Townsend and ex-Senator Boyd.

Near at hand were Inspector Byrnes, Prof.
Decremes, John OSpillian, Rev. Titus Mar.

AT THE CHURCH DOOR.

Corporation Counsel Beekman, Henry L. Chnton, Elihu Root, W. W. Macfarland, Christopher Fine, John D. Kernan, son of ex-Senator Francis Kernan; Frederick Loud, Alderman Henjamin, Alderman Cowie, Commissioner Ridgway, Inspector Williams, Clarence W. Meade, Police Justice Patterson, Police Justice Ford, Edward Kearney, Dwight Lawrence, Col. Thomas P. Ochiltree, Jacob Hess, Frederick S. Gibbs, James W. Boyle, John Simoson, Bernard Biglin, John Collins, John H. Grimes, Denis Shes, William F. Townley, John D. Lawson, John W. Jacobus, George Hilliard, Coroner Nugent, Henry C. Periey, Frank Raymond, Thomas N. Stearns, Civil Justice Deane, John F. Enright, George Stewart, Richard M. Lush, Isaac Dayton, W. H. Beliamy, Robert G. McCord. Near at hand were inspector Byrnes, Fro.
Doremus, John O'Sullivan, Rev. Titus Merritt and Dr. Hamilton.

In another group were big William F.
Howe and his pariner, Abe Hummel, counsel for the prosecution, and Witnesses J. W.
Randolph, David Valkenbergh, Maurice A.
Friedlander and George E. T. Salomon.

Many of the stolen Loewenhertz pictures were in court as exhibits.

The so-called spirit pictures, however, were not produced by the defense, though Judge Kilbreth directed at the last hearing that they be brought into court. Lawyer Townsend, prompted by Ann O'Delia, said that Mr. Marsh had them locked up in his room and they could not be got at.

Judge Kilbreth male a percuptory order that the spook products be produced at the next hearing.

Chief lessector Evenes was then called to sages of sympathy and regret from President and Mrs. Cleveland.

that the spook products be produced at the next hearing.

Chief Inspector Byrnes was then called to the stand by Mr. Howe,

He created much anusement among the audience by telling how Ann O'Delia acted at Police Headquarters the night of her arrest. First he sent her down to a cell to sleep, but afterwards had her brought upstairs.

"Our cells are not large," he said, in explanation, "and she is a large woman. The cots in the cells are only 46 inches wide and there was not enough room.

"She came to thank me and asked me to recommend a lawyer. She asked if Judge recommend a lawyer. She asked if Judge Fullerton and Mr. Townsend were good lawyers and I said they were.

"She asked if Mr. Townsend were not a younger man than Judge Fullerton, and when I said he was she decided to engage him."

him."
The Inspector further testified that Mme.

Minister Pendleton's son, Frank K. Pendleton, who is practising law in this city, has received a cable despatch from Wiesbaden informing him that while his father received a slight apopletic stroke, his condition was not at any time considered dangerous. This morning he was reassured by cable despatches both from Wiesbaden and Berlin. A Secretary of Legation at Berlin, cables, "Continued Improvement. Danger not feared. Your father telegraphed me himself to-day." Diss Debar admitted to him that George Salomon was her brother.

Carl Hertz, who announced himself as an illusionist, magician and juggler, testified as to the way the trick of producing spirit letters is produced. He said the trick was done by sleight of hand. "Can you perform that trick new?" asked Mr. Hummel. Amid great excitement the witness retired bland paper, shown in succession to Judges Kilbreth and Smith and many others, was handed to her. She folded it twice. Mr. Hartz made a few passes and amid a shout of laughter the paper was unfolded and the words, "Luther R. Marsh's Editha," came from the spirit same trick played upon her, but she insisted upon marking the paper for identification.

"When I do the trick I always mark the paper for my sitters," she said.

This tacit admission on her part that she performed "tricks" was at once noted by the astute Mr. Hummel.

The madame refused to compete with Hertz unless the paper was marked and was asked to resume her seat, Mr. Hertz saying he made no claim that the identical piece of paper was produced.
J. W. Randelph, whom Mme, Diss Debar

count of the prison officials.

Lawyer Townsend shook his head and said

The face of the ex-Senator was seen by a few friends yesterday, but the lid of the coffin was closed at 6 o'clock last evening and main in the Tombs till she goes thence to trial, conviction and the penitentiary. dium, with all her money and her influence man, Mr. Marsh's friends became still_more alarmed.

They represented to Justice Kilbreth the necessity of getting the woman out of the Marsh mansion. If she stayed there the venerable lawyer might come to his death in some such manner as did old Loewenhertz. This was the reason why the bail was fixed so high, why such strenuous efforts were made to keep the madam behind the thick walls of the Tombs, and why Howe & Hummel were urged to press the other charges so vigorously.

ously.

Mme, Diss Debar was in a terrible passion when the reporters called this morning. Adversity is fast souring her temper and driving versity is fast souring her temper and driving her to despair.

When asked what she thought of Mr. Marsh's scornful allusion to her as "that woman" and his willingness to get her effects out of his house, she said:

"He may think what he likes of my character. He knows I am a true medium, and has proofs of my power with the spirits."

At 2 o'clock Judge Kilbreth signed an order directing Warden Osborne to produce the bodies of Edith L. Diss Debar, Joseph Diss Debar, M. B. Lawrence and Frank Lawrence for further examination on the charge of conspiracy.

Officer Maurice Finn brought up the prisoners. Madame gathered up the train of her black silk gown and strode forward with as

Doremus, John O'Sullivan, Rev. Titus Mero a screen and made a moment's prepara tion.

His wife took the stand, and a piece of world.

Mme. Diss Debar then asked to have the engaged as manager, was then cross-examed. Lawyer Townsend insisted on his telling I the conversation had with the madam at her house.

Mr. Randolph hesitated to tell before such a crowded audience, but under pressure told that the Madame made love to him the first day she saw him.

"She told me I was handsome, bold, smart and just the kind of a man she liked," he said, amid roars of laughter.

At this point Luther R. Marsh came into court. He did not speak to or acknowledge the presence of Ann O'Delia or the other prisoners.

EMPEROR FREDERICK IMPROVES.

All the Physicians Agree that He Is Bette This Morning.

[BY CARLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] BERLIN, April 20 .- A bulletin was issued at 9 o'clock this morning by the physicians in attendance at the Castle of Charlottenburg announcing that the Emperor had passed good night and his fever again decreased, while his breathing was very much easier. His whole general condition is pronounce to be improved. The bulletin was signed by all the physicians.

TWENTY-FOUR MINERS BLOWN TO ATOMS. A Terrific Explosion in the St. Helen Coal

Mines at Workington, England. INT CARLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, April 20,-A terrific disaster occurred last night in the St. Helen coal-mines at Workington by the explosion of fire-damp. The miners were hurled in every direction by the force of the explosion, and as soon as an examination could be made it was found that twenty-four men had been killed and ten were so seriously wounded by flying

The victims were blown into fragments, and the gallery in which the disaster occurred presented a sickening sight. Most of the dead miners had families who are left in great destitution. PAID IN COURT FOR THE FUN.

fragments that most of them will die.

A Harvard Boy Fined $75 for That Drink-BOSTON, April 20. —Henry W. Corning, a Harvard

College Freshman, accompanied by a couple of college friends, appeared before Judge Orcutt, in the District Court, at Cambridge, this morning to answer to a complaint for assisting and maintain-answer to a complaint for assisting and maintaining a liquor noisance.

On the morning of the 4th of April Sergt. Pullen, with a couple of patrolmen, raided the rooms of the "Harvard Polo Club" and secured a quantity of wines and champagne.

The visit of the officers was unexpected, so that the seizure was a very simple matter.

The officers, after a consultation with some of the members, were informed that J. P. Gray, '91, would respond for the club.

Gray, unfortunately, had left for his home in New York, where he has remained up to the pressent time.

New York, where he has remained up to the pressent time.

Henry W. Corning, a member of the Freshman Class, decided to take Gray's place, and accordingly appeared in court as the defendant this morning.

The plea of "note contendre" was entered on the ground of ignorance of the law.

Corning comes from Cleveland, O.

The Court ruled that according to the acts of 1857 each member of a ciub is equally responsible in the k-sping and dispensine of lagors.

The d cendant was accordingly fined $75, with costs, a sum which was quickly paid.

NEW YORK VS. WASHINGTON.

A special correspondent of "The Even ing World" has gone to Washington with the Giants. The readers of the Sporting Extra to-night will have a full and excellent report of the game this atternoon. Look out for it. It is the first game of the League championship.

The other League games will be: Boston at Philadelphia. Detroit at Pittsburg.

Chicago at Indianapolis.

GIANTS FEEL SURE OF VICTORY. Ward and All the Boys Ready for To-Day's

Game in Washington. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD, laden with grips and bat-bags, boarded the sleeper "Egeria" at the Pennsylvania depot, in Jersey City, at 12 o'clock last night, bound for the Capitol City to see what they could do in a tussel with the Washington willow-wielders. In the party there were sixteen regular players, Manager Mutrie, the Sporting Editor of the Press and THE EVENING WORLD representative.

Johnny Ward was there as large as life. was a subdued but satisfied air about him that indicated a resumption of the old-time pleasant relation between himself and the powers that be.

The loys when they were all aboard comfortably filled the car. Many of them retired just as the train left the deput. Others, including Foster, Slattery, Ned Crane and "Smiling Mickey," inaugurated an impromptu concert on the ront steps of the sleeper, and many and varied were the songs that floated out on the air as the train rolled through the darkness.

songs that floated out on the air as the train rolled through the darkness.

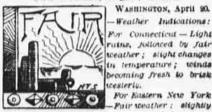

Buck Ewing soon called the boys to bed, however, and before many miles had been traversed the long sale was curtained from end to end, and nothing disturted the beauty of the scene but banny Rionardson's little trousers lying on the floor in front of his berth and various painful sounds indicating that sleeper was busily engaged in knitting up the ravelled sleeve of Care.

Upon arriving at their destination this morning everybody repaired to Williard's, built up the gray matter of their brains with sundry estables and christables, and expressed themselves as thoroughly satisfied with the world at large.

As to this afternoon's game there is but one opinion, which is voiced by Jim Mutrie: "Although they have been our Jonabs in the past, I think we will beat them this time hands down."

Slasher Gordon Sont to Sing Sing. Thomas Gordon, a negro, who slashed man Edward Armstrong with a razor on April 7, was sentenced to impresonment in Sing Sing Prison for four and one-half years by Judge Martine in the Court of General Sessions to-day.

Fair Weather, Slightly Colder.

For Connecticut - Light ruins, Jollowed by Jair rutns, followed or weather; sight changes weather; winds becoming fresh to brisk steesteriy.

order; fresh to brisk northwesterty winds.

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer: 1886, 1887, 52 57 PA.M..... 50 36 12 M..... 1888. 1887. 50 46 48 52

O,CTOCK

PRICE ONE CENT.

"LAID OUT" IF NECESSARY.

Drage were to Have Been Given to the Other Two Keepers-John Kelly and Edward Bertine Remanded Again To-Day-How the Warden's Suspicions were

First Aroused-Benson Sheds Tears. John Kelly and Edward Bertine, the two conspirators who plotted to rescue Henry Benson, the Mexican swindler, from Ludlow Street Jail, were remanded by Justice O'Reilly, at Jefferson Market, until to-morrow, when further evidence against them will be forthcoming. Benson's plot to escape was first discovered by Warden Keating about seven weeks ago, when the prisoner made a proposition to when the prisoner made a proposition to John McCabe, one of the keepers, to obtain for him an impression of the keyhole in the corridor door.

Since that time the conspirators have been followed up by the Warden, and McCabe, who was believed by Benson and Kelly and Bertine, his friends on the outside, to be their ally until sufficient evidence was obtained to cause their arrest.

Warden Keating was in high spirits this morning over the success of his efforts to secure the conspirators, and Benson, who up to this morning has believed himself thoroughly protected by McCabe, was perfectly dumfounded by the disclosure which was made to him.

founded by the disclosure which was made to him.

He wept and protested his innocence at first, calling his dead mother to witness the truth of his statements, but finally became perfectly stolid and refused to say a word in answer to the questions that were put to him. During the three weeks that Benson has been locked up and his friend Kelly refused admission to the jail, the conspirators have only been able to communicate with each other by letter, Keeper McCabe being the gobetween.

other by letter, Keeper McCabe being the gobetween.

All those letters, of course, passed through the Warden's hands, and he read them all, taking copies of the originals, before permitting McCabe to deliver them.

"Everything had been arranged for the escape," said the Warden, "for Wednesday night, as the letter sent by Benson to Kelly the day before shows. He believes that McCabe had secured the key to the corridor, and gave in this letter as his final instructions to Kelly that he should go to a certain friend of his uptown and procure a drug that would cause sleep.

"At the same time he instructed Kelly to have a telegram sent to me purporting to

"At the same time he instructed heavy so have a telegram sent to me purporting to dome from an intimate friend of mine uptown, requesting me to come and see him at once without fail.

"When I had gone the drug was to be given to the other two keepers in charge, and when it had made them unconscious McCabe was to let him out and they would make their escane together.

was to let him out and they would make their escape together.

"Meanwhile it was to be arranged that two men should follow me, and if I started to return before the drug could have its effect they were to lay me out.

"McCabe and Benson were to go to Washington, and from thence to Canada.

"I intended to keep the letter at first, but decided to let it go, as I knew that Inspector Byrnes was to make an attempt to arrest the men that night. As luck would have it, the very letter was found on Kelly when he was nabbed and is the best link in the chain of evidence against the conspirators that we could desire," evidence against the conspirators and could desire."

In another letter received some time ago, Benson told Kelly to get some files and saws from a man whom they knew, for breaking iron bars, and at another time he sent for a certain kind of acid.

The Warden had no doubt that Kelly knew where all of Benson's "boodle" was concealed and he found out from the letters which passed between the conspirators that Kelly was failing to make the proper account to Benson of the money which he was spending.

The Warden said his suspicions against Benson and Kelly were first aroused by the latter giving him frequently tickets to the theatres, in order he supposed to get him out of the way while they schemed, and by his questioning him in regard to the various doors and entrances to the jail.

The Guttenburg Entries. The entries for the races to be run at Guttenburg o-morrow are as follows:

nd Race Constillian 115
17 Harry Brown 197
17 Carlow 197
15 Redwing 197
15 Lizzie Ces; to carry 19 b, o, for all ag. 199 Avery.... Ranquet Voia.... Gold Star.... Transit...... Jim Bradt..... Vigilant. Little Emily... Firsh Race. -The Pal Windasil..... O Fellus..... Top hawyer... Sixth Race Pures above the scale; mile 0, for all ages; to carry 20 lb. which are as follows:

"Not Bulk, but Business!"
is the way a Western man put it in expressing to a friend his complete satisfaction in the use of DR.
Plenck's Pleasant Puggative Pellers. So small and yet so effection; they bid fair to supplant entirely the old style pill. An ever ready remedy for sick and bilious bendache, tillionasess, constipation and all blood disorders. Mild in action, wonderful in effect! Put up in vials, convenient to carry.
Their use attended with no discomfort! These sierling merits account for their great popularity.

Washington, April 20.
-Weather Indications:

" Not Bulk, but Business !"

BENSON'S PLOT TO ESCAPE. WARDEN KEATING WAS TO HAVE BEEN